

Newsletter — CHRISTMAS 2013 edition

Hi Everyone—MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY NEW YEAR! We've got a special Christmassy edition of your newsletter with a b-i-g feature on the recent Junior Blues Christmas Party bowling with the players—it was great to see so many of you there! Plus there's some Christmas fun inside too.

We both hope you all have a great Christmas and get all the presents you want, and that Southend United will continue their great form into the New Year...and hopefully, on to promotion!

Christmas Party

From 11 year old James Cockell— “It was amazing and great to meet the players and play tenpin with Strakes and Ryan Leonard- I couldn't believe how fast they bowled - they must be really strong!”

Your letters and photos

Here's 3 year old twins, John and Bethany Welham, enjoying their copies of the last Junior Blue's newsletter!

This cheeky chappie is 4 year old George Smith at his first Southend away match supporting them at Harlow Town in the Essex Senior Cup—George loves the drum and singing at Roots Hall, he thought it was a bit quiet at Harlow!
