INTRODUCTION

Hi everyone,

So, season over and we didn't do too badly on the whole, however, sadly, the end of a season means it's time for some of our players to move on to face fresh challenges.

That means we have to say "goodbye" to some players who have been big favourites with all of you, namely, Michael Timlin and Anthony Wordsworth, plus Josh Wright, Jermaine McGlashan and Marc-Antoine Fortuné. We wish them all the best of luck with their new clubs.

We're delighted though, that our Junior Blues Ambassador, John White, has accepted a new deal to stay at the club for next season.

No doubt, there will be more news over the Summer and, when we meet the team at Meet The Blues Day on 29th July, lots of new faces to greet. Talking of which, if you haven't done so already, do put Meet The Blues Day in your diaries or on your calendars. As usual, this will be at Boots & Laces, with lots of fun things to do plus the opportunity to meet the team. For a change this year, there will be a match between the under 18s and Brighton & Hove Albion's under 18s, so you can look out for the next Dru Yearwood, Elvis Bwomono or Harry Kyrianiou to come through the ranks!

We're also welcoming Luton Town, Accrington Stanley, Wycombe Wanderers and Coventry City from League 2 and Barnsley, Burton Albion and Sunderland from the Championship while saying farewell to Wigan Athletic, Blackburn Rovers, Rotherham, Bury, MK Dons, Northampton Town and Oldham Athletic Enjoy your last half term of the year at school, have lots of fun and we'll see you all soon, however, before we go, we've got to say a big "thank you" to the Lansley family, and particularly Jess, for writing an article for this newsletter. Well done Jess, and good luck with all the fund-raising!

UTB!

JUNIOR BLUES MEET THE PLAYERS DAY

Back on 10th April, 90 Junior Blues members got together with the players and management at Roots Hall, for another great and exclusive Meet the Players Day. This was the first one since Chris Powell had come in as manager, and he and Damien Mathews explained to everyone what training was involved and what to look for during the training sessions and matches. It was a great opportunity to watch and learn, and then to get the chance for autographs and photos before tucking into pizza in the Blues Lounge.

Here's Johnny White with Junior Blues member, Callom Taylor who was the lucky winner of a mascot package as drawn by John.

We love this great picture of Junior Blues member, Sapphire Peters, who has just celebrated her 3rd birthday – have been meaning to post this one for a while! Happy Birthday Sapphire!

Hello, my name is Jessica Lansley and I am 11 years old. Sadly, in 2017 my Mummy (Carli) sadly passed away in her sleep. Before my Mummy passed away we were massive fans of Southend United. My Mummy and Daddy were part of the Shrimpers Trust, Ethan (my Brother) and me were part of the Junior Blues. (And still are a part of it.)

My favourite player is Jason Demetriou and, cheekily, when we got to watch the players train I asked Jason if I could have his shirt at the end of the season!

When it came to the last game he came over and not just gave me his shirt but the shirt was signed! I was over the moon! Since my Mummy passed away we have got more involved with the club by asking if they would help out with my Mummy's charity - Carli Lansley Foundation, which they have.
